

How much of that city's water is purified recycled water?

This fact sheet shows some examples of what proportion of the overall water supply, purified recycled water is expected to make up either now or when the scheme is complete.

Scottsdale, Arizona (USA): 12%

Padre Dam, California (USA): 30%

Cape Town (South Africa): 20%

Singapore: 1 – 30-40% currently, due to rise to up to 55% by 2060

San Diego, California (USA): Nearly 50%

London (Langford), UK: Up to 70% during drought periods

Windhoek, Namibia: 14%, up to 35% during drought

Oceanside, California (USA): Around 32%

North Carolina (USA): Has proposed new potable reuse guidelines allowing up to 20%, with other criteria

Monterey, California (USA): 33% - due to rise to up to 60% in around 2025

Los Angeles, California (USA): 70%

Beaufort West, South Africa: 20-30%

Soquel Creek, California (USA): 33%

Castle Rock, Colorado (USA): 33%