

PFAS FURTHER READING

The sources below on PFAS may be of interest.

Australian Government:

- Australian Drinking Water Guidelines homepage
- National Health and Medical Research Council homepage
- Draft new PFAS guideline values announcement package
- Australian Government PFAS Taskforce | PFAS
- Per- and poly-fluoroalkyl substances \(PFASs\) – DCCEE
- enHealth 2024 Fact sheet on PFAS | Australian Government Department of Health and Aged Care
- Industrial Chemicals Environmental Management Standard - IChEMS
- Health regulator websites in your state or territory (eg NSW Health page)
- Your local water utility. If you do not know who your local water utility is, refer to your water bill (if you receive one) or ask your local council.

Australian Water Sector:

- WSAA PFAS Resources page: Media Release, Fact Sheet, FAQ, Further Reading
- Australian Water Association ‘Source’ article on PFAS (interview with Professor Stuart Khan), September 2024
- WSAA September 2024 newsletter article
- Water Research Australia PFAS resources
- WaterNSW PFAS page
- Sydney Water PFAS page
- Hunter Water PFAS page

Parliamentary Inquiries:

- Federal Parliament Inquiry: Select Committee on PFAS \(per and polyfluoroalkyl substances\)
- NSW Parliament Inquiry: Select Committee on PFAS Contamination in Waterways and Drinking Water Supplies Throughout New South Wales

US/global:

- US EPA Final PFAS National Primary Drinking Water Regulation resource centre
- American Water Works Association PFAS centre
- Water Research Foundation PFAS resources
- World Health Organization PFAS Guidelines